

lucrative
and had 450
en and a
boys work-
across 25

he three
filming,
st year, Ms
ame back
for three

Z
n

far include
safety and
ns of pollu-
the feeling
current nts seem to e shoppers uring further Leonard's

ascod Street
created in the pedestri-
of the lower
ascod Street.

ow increased
at route after r part of the
as pedestri-1993.

likewise added:
o, however,

whom, she says, she is
estranged.
When asked if she brought shame on her family, she says: "Of director of the programme –

entitled The World's Most Successful
Madam – first wrote to crime and time in prison. The family declined to take part in the film.

information should call PC Graham Slater at the Police Inquiry Centre on 08458 505 505.

■ RISING STARS: Table tennis star Marina Zarzycka teaches Ashley Jordon, seven, Conner Horton, 10, and Caillean Horton, nine. 05-0573_a

Champion passes on tips

AN international table tennis champion has set up classes to pass her knowledge on to some possible stars of the future.

Marina Zarzycka gives up her Tuesday evenings to offer table tennis coaching at New Windsor Community Centre in Dedworth.

She has played table tennis internationally for Russia and Germany and is one of the top players in Britain.

Mrs Zarzycka is also a member of Cippenham Table Tennis Club.

The classes are from 4.30pm to 6pm for beginners aged between nine and 14 and 6pm until 9pm for adults. The coaching cost £3.60 per hour.

UKIP hopeful chosen

A GEOGRAPHY teacher has been appointed UKIP hopeful for Windsor.
David Black, 66, an A-level and GCSE geography

• VILLAS • TOWNHOUSES • APARTMENTS • BUNGALOWS • Join us at our
OVERSEAS